DISCUSSION SUMMARY: FRANCES HA

With high expectations for the film Frances Ha, we added it to our discussion. Maybe director, Noah Baumbach, took a cue from Gatsby (obsessed with Daisy Buchanan) because none of us shared his obsessive, fascination with Greta Gerwig starring as Frances Ha.

An immature, irresponsible, quirky young woman in New York who wants to be a dancer and doesn't understand how her best girlfriend can grow up without her and be in a relationship. At least Noah and the published male movie reviewers liked the film.

We gave it a weak 1.64, our lowest score ever.
